SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

This policy sets out the rights and responsibilities of employees who are eligible to take Shared Parental Leave.

Further advice regarding entitlement can be obtained from the Human Resources Department. Advice on health and safety matters can be obtained from Salus Occupational Health & Safety Service.

Other Related Policies:

- Maternity Leave
- Paternity Leave
- Adoption and Fostering Leave
- Parental Leave
- Breastfeeding
- Flexible Working

Shared parental leave (SPL) is a form of leave available to working parents following the birth or adoption of a child. It applies in respect of children who were born on or after 5 April 2015. It is also available where an adoption agency placed a child with you and/or your partner after 5 April 2015.

In the case of adoption, it provides a more flexible alternative to the default system whereby one partner may qualify for up to 52 weeks' adoption leave and the other partner may qualify for up to two weeks' ordinary paternity leave.

In birth cases, SPL allows parents to take up to 52 weeks leave in total (2 of which has to be Maternity Leave) on the birth of a child. They can take this leave at the same time, or at different times.

In the case of adoption, under the SPL system, up to 50 weeks of the adoption leave entitlement may be designated as SPL. (The adopter can end their adoption leave once they have taken it for two weeks).

Assuming you are both eligible, you and your partner can choose how you split that leave between you. You may be able to take this leave at the same time or at different times. You may also be able to take it in more than one block.

2. AIM, PURPOSE AND OUTCOMES

This policy outlines the arrangements for shared parental leave and pay in relation to the birth or adoption of a child.

The definitions applicable in this policy in relation to the birth of a child are:
Expected week of childbirth (EWC): the week, beginning on a Sunday, in which the doctor or midwife expects your child to be born;

Parent: One of two people who will share the main responsibility for the child's upbringing (and who may be either the mother, the father, or the mother's partner if not the father);

Partner: spouse, civil partner or someone living with another person in an enduring family relationship, but not a sibling, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew.

Qualifying Week: the week the adoption agency notifies you that you have been matched with a child for adoption.

3. SCOPE

3.1 Who is the Policy intended to Benefit or Affect?

This policy applies to all NHS Lanarkshire employees irrespective of their age, sex, disability, religion or belief, ethnicity/race, sexual orientation, marital or civil partnership status, pregnancy or maternity or gender reassignment.

NHS Lanarkshire takes care to ensure your personal information is only accessible to authorised people. Our staff have a legal and contractual duty to keep personal health information secure, and confidential. In order to find out more about current data protection legislation and how we process your information, please visit the Data Protection Notice on our website at www.nhslanarkshire.scot.nhs.uk or ask a member of staff for a copy of our Data Protection Notice.

3.2 Who are the Stakeholders?

All of NHS Lanarkshire’s directly employed staff.

4. PRINCIPAL CONTENT

4.1 Key Principles

All requests must be made in writing to the employee’s line manager.

4.2 ENTITLEMENT TO SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

You are entitled to SPL in relation to the birth of a child if:

- you are the child's mother, and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the child's father (or your partner, if the father is not your partner);
SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY

- you are the child's father and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the child's mother; or
- you are the mother's partner and share the main responsibility for the care of the child with the mother (where the child's father does not share the main responsibility with the mother).

You may also be entitled to SPL in relation to the adoption of a child if an adoption agency has placed a child with you and/or your partner for adoption, and you intend to share the main responsibility for the care of the child with your partner.

In both birth and adoption cases, the following conditions must also be fulfilled:

- you must have at least 26 weeks continuous employment with NHS Lanarkshire by the end of the Qualifying Week, and must still be employed by NHS Lanarkshire in the week before the leave is to be taken;
- the other parent (or in adoption cases, your partner) must have worked (in an employed or self-employed capacity) in at least 26 of the 66 weeks before the EWC or Qualifying Week and had average weekly earnings of at least £30 during 13 of those weeks; and
- In birth cases, you and the other parent must give the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end any maternity leave, statutory maternity pay (SMP) or maternity allowance (MA) periods.
- In adoption cases, you and your partner must give the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end adoption leave or statutory adoption pay (SAP).
- In adoption cases, either you or your partner must also qualify for statutory adoption leave and/or SAP, and must take at least two weeks of adoption leave and/or pay.

In birth cases, the total amount of SPL available is 52 weeks, less the weeks spent by the child's mother on maternity leave (or the weeks in which the mother has been in receipt of SMP or MA if she is not entitled to maternity leave).

In the case of adoption, the total amount of SPL available is also 52 weeks, less the weeks of adoption leave taken by either you or partner (or the weeks in which your partner has been in receipt of SAP if they were not entitled to adoption leave).

In birth cases, if you are the mother, you cannot start SPL until after the compulsory maternity leave period, which lasts until two weeks after birth.

In adoption cases, the adopter cannot start SPL until 2 weeks of adoption leave has been taken.

Please see Appendix A and B for flow charts detailing entitlements to Shared Parental Pay.
4.3 PATERNITY LEAVE

If your partner is taking adoption leave and/or claiming SAP, you may be entitled to two weeks' paternity leave and pay (see Paternity Leave Policy). You should consider using this before taking SPL. Paternity leave is additional to any SPL entitlement you may have, but you will lose any untaken paternity leave entitlement once you start a period of SPL.

In birth cases, if you are the child's father or the mother's partner, you should consider using your two weeks' paternity leave before taking SPL. Once you start SPL you will lose any untaken paternity leave entitlement. SPL entitlement is additional to your paternity leave entitlement. However, if you are not entitled to Paternity Leave, Shared Parental Leave can start from the date of birth.

4.4 ENDING MATERNITY/ADOPTION LEAVE

In birth cases, if you are the child's mother and are still on maternity leave, you must give us at least eight weeks' written notice to end your maternity leave before you can take SPL. In adoption cases, this is also the same if you are taking or intend to take adoption leave and want to opt into the SPL scheme.

The notice must state the date on which your maternity/adoption leave will end. You can give the notice before or after the birth, or after adoption leave starts, but you cannot end your maternity/adoption leave until at least two weeks after birth, or in the case of adoption you must take at least two weeks' adoption leave.

Once the child's mother ends Maternity leave she cannot go back onto maternity leave once she or her partner have started Shared Parental Leave. In both cases the Maternity/Adoption Leave Curtailment Notice Form (Appendix C) should be completed and submitted to your line manager.

The other parent or your partner may be eligible to take SPL from their employer before your maternity or adoption leave ends, but they cannot start it until you have given us your curtailment notice.

The curtailment notice is usually binding and cannot be revoked. You can only revoke a curtailment notice if maternity or adoption leave has not yet ended and one of the following applies:

- If you realise that neither you nor the other parent / your partner are in fact eligible for SPL or ShPP, you can revoke the curtailment notice in writing up to eight weeks after it was given;
- If you gave the curtailment notice before giving birth, you can revoke it in writing up to eight weeks after it was given, or up to six weeks after birth, whichever is later; or
If the other parent / your partner has died.

In birth cases, once you revoke a curtailment notice you cannot submit a second curtailment notice, unless the revocation was given in the in circumstances in paragraph above. In adoption cases, once you have revoked a curtailment notice you will be unable to opt back in to the SPL scheme.

In birth cases, if you are the child's father or the mother's partner, you will only be able to take SPL once the mother has either:

- returned to work;
- given her employer a curtailment notice to end her maternity leave;
- given her employer a curtailment notice to end her SMP (if she is entitled to SMP but not maternity leave); or
- given a curtailment notice to the Department of Work and Pensions to end her MA (if she is not entitled to maternity leave or SMP).

In adoption cases, if your partner is taking adoption leave or claiming SAP from their employer, you will only be able to take SPL once your partner has either:

- returned to work;
- given their employer a curtailment notice to end adoption leave; or
- given their employer a curtailment notice to end SAP (if they are entitled to SAP but not adoption leave).

4.5 OPTING IN TO SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE AND PAY

At the same time that you submit your Maternity/Adoption Leave Curtailment Notice Form, you must also submit, a notice to opt into the SPL scheme (see Appendix D or Appendix E, whichever is relevant or both if applicable), or a written declaration that the child's father or your partner has given his or her employer an opt-in notice and that you have given the necessary declarations in that notice. This must be submitted no less than eight weeks before the date you intend your SPL to start.

This form needs to provide the following information:

- your name and the name of the other parent (or in adoption cases, the name of your partner);
- In birth cases, if you are the child's mother, the start and end dates of your maternity leave;
- In birth cases, if you are the child’s father or the mother's partner, the start and end dates of the mother's maternity leave, or if she is not entitled to maternity leave, the start and end dates of any SMP or MA period;
- In the case of adoption, if you are taking adoption leave, your adoption leave start and end dates;
- In the case of adoption, if you are not taking adoption leave, your partner's adoption leave start and end dates, or if your partner is not entitled to adoption leave, the start and end dates of their SAP;
SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY

- The total SPL to be taken, which is 52 weeks minus the number of weeks’ maternity leave, adoption leave, SMP, MA or SAP period (as appropriate) taken or to be taken by you or your partner;
- How many weeks of the available SPL will be allocated to you and how much to the other parent/your partner. You can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice (See appendix F: Period of Leave Notice Form), and you do not have to use your full allocation;
- If you are claiming statutory shared parental pay (ShPP), the total ShPP available, which is 39 weeks minus the number of weeks of the SMP, SAP or MA period taken or to be taken);
- How much of the available ShPP will be allocated to you and how much to the other parent/your partner. (You can change the allocation by giving us a further written notice, and you do not have to use your full allocation);
- An indication of the pattern of leave you are thinking of taking, including suggested start and end dates for each period of leave. This indication will not be binding at this stage, but please give as much information as you can about your future intentions; and
- Declarations by you and the other parent/your partner that you meet the statutory conditions for entitlement to SPL and ShPP.

4.6. EARLY BIRTH AND SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES – EFFECT ON SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

4.6.1 Early Birth

If the child is born before the expected due date and you had booked to take SPL within the first eight weeks of the due date, you may take the same period of time off after the actual birth without having to provide eight weeks’ notice, by submitting a notice to vary your leave as soon as is reasonably practicable. Any leave arranged after the first eight weeks of the due date is still bound by the eight-week notice required to vary leave.

If the child is born more than eight weeks before their expected due date and the notice of entitlement to SPL and/or a notice to book SPL have not yet been given, then there is no requirement to give eight weeks’ notice before the period of leave starts. The notices should be given as soon as is reasonably practicable after the actual birth.

4.6.2 Death of the Child

Should the child die before the parents have submitted a notice of entitlement to take SPL then you cannot opt into SPL because a qualifying condition is caring for a child. The mother will remain entitled to maternity leave and the mother’s partner may still qualify for paternity leave.

If the parents’ have opted into SPL and have booked leave, you will still be entitled to take the booked leave. No further notice booking leave can be submitted and only one variation notice can be given to reduce a period of leave or to rearrange a discontinuous leave arrangement into a single block of leave.

If you are absent on SPL, you may cancel the agreed SPL and return to work by giving your employer eight weeks’ notice of your return to work.

4.6.3 Partner No Longer Caring for the Child

If your circumstances change and you have already booked SPL and are no longer responsible for caring for the child (unless it is because the child has died), your entitlement to both SPL and ShPP will immediately cease and you must tell your line manager. If you have any SPL arranged within eight weeks of your entitlement ceasing, you may still be required to take it as SPL if it is not reasonably practical for you to return to work, for example because cover has been arranged. Any weeks of SPL arranged after eight weeks of your entitlement ceasing must be cancelled.

If the remaining parent will be continuing to care for the child, then you may still be eligible to take your SPL entitlement. If the other parent, who is no longer caring for the child had any SPL leave entitlement outstanding, the remaining parent will only be able to transfer it into their own entitlement if they can get the signed agreement of the other parent to a notice confirming a variation of leave entitlement.

4.6.4 Death of a Parent

If either parent dies and the other parent is taking, or is entitled to SPL then they will continue to be eligible. Any SPL that was due to be taken by the deceased parent may be transferred to the other parent if the other parent is eligible for SPL.

4.7. EVIDENCE OF ENTITLEMENT

You must provide with your opt-in notice (see Appendix C) the following:

- In birth cases, a copy of the birth certificate (or if you have not yet obtained a birth certificate, a signed declaration of the child’s date and place of birth) or MATB1 certificate; or in the case of adoption, one or more documents from the adoption agency such as the Matching Certificate showing the agency's name and address and the expected placement date;

  and

- The name and address of the other parent's employer (or a declaration that they have no employer or that they are self-employed).

4.8. NOTIFYING US OF YOUR SPL DATES

Having opted into the SPL system, you will need to give a period of leave notice telling us the start and end dates of your leave. This can be given at the same time as your opt-in notice, or it can be given later, as long as it is given at least eight weeks before the start of your leave. You must also state in your period of leave notice the dates on which you intend to claim shared parental pay, if applicable.

If your period of leave notice gives dates for a single continuous block of SPL you will be entitled to take the leave set out in the notice.

You can give up to three periods of leave notices. This may enable you to take up to three separate blocks of shared parental leave. In exceptional circumstances we may agree to accept more than three periods of leave notices but there is no obligation for us to do so.

4.9 PROCEDURE FOR REQUESTING SPLIT PERIODS OF SPL

In general, a period of leave notice should set out a single continuous block of leave. However, in some cases, we may be willing to consider a period of leave notice where the SPL is split into shorter periods (of at least a week) with periods of work in between. It is best to discuss this with your manager in advance of submitting any formal period of leave notices. This will give us more time to consider the request and hopefully agree a pattern of leave with you from the start. During a period of Shared Parental Leave and Pay you will not be able to carry out any work including any work with NHS Lanarkshire.

You must submit a period of leave notice setting out the requested pattern of leave at least eight weeks before the requested start date. If we are unable to agree to your request straight away, there will be a two-week discussion period with your line manager. At the end of that period, your line manager will confirm any agreed arrangements in writing. If we have not reached an agreement, you will be entitled to take the full amount of requested SPL as one continuous block, starting on the start date given in your notice (for example, if you requested three separate periods of four weeks each, you will be entitled to one 12-week period of leave).

Alternatively, you may:

- Choose a new start date (which must be at least 8 weeks after your original period of leave notice was given), and notify us of this new date within 5 days of the end of the two-week discussion: or

- Withdraw your period of leave notice within 2 days of the end of the two-week discussion period (in which case it will not be counted and you may submit a new one if you choose).

4.10 CHANGING THE DATES OR CANCELLING YOUR SPL

You can cancel a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date which you have given in the period of leave notice.
You can change the start date for a period of leave, or the length of the period of leave, by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks' notice before the original start date and the new start date.

You can change the end date for a period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the original end date and the new end date.

You can change split periods of leave into a single continuous period of leave by notifying us in writing at least eight weeks before the start date.

You can request that a continuous period of leave be split into two or more discontinuous periods with periods of work in between. We will consider any such request in the way set out in section 4.9.

A notice to cancel or change a period of leave will count as one of your three periods of leave notices, unless:

- in the case of a birth, the variation is a result of your child being born earlier or later than the EWC;
- in the case of adoption, the variation is a result of the child being placed with you earlier or later than the expected placement date;
- the variation is at our request; or
- we agree otherwise.

4.11 SHARED PARENTAL PAY

4.11.1 Statutory Shared Parental Pay

Statutory Shared Parental Pay of up to 39 weeks (less any weeks of statutory maternity pay, maternity allowance or statutory adoption pay claimed by you or the other parent or your partner) may be available, provided you have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with NHS Lanarkshire at the end of the Qualifying Week and your average earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit set by the government each tax year. Statutory Shared Parental Pay is paid at a rate set by the government each year.

4.11.2 Contractual Shared Parental Pay

You may also qualify for contractual Shared Parental Pay if you have been continuously employed with one or more NHS employers during the 12 month period ending with the Qualifying Week. It is not a requirement that your partner is also employed by an NHS Scotland employer.

4.11.3 Entitlement to Contractual Shared Parental Pay

The number of weeks of full or half contractual Shared Parental Pay to which you are entitled as described in the following paragraphs, will be subject to deduction of the number of weeks of full or half contractual maternity or maternity support (paternity), or adoption pay as appropriate, which may already have been paid to you or your partner by us, or by another NHS Scotland employer, in respect of the child.

4.11.4 Subject to any deductions which will apply by virtue of paragraph 4.11.3 for the first eight weeks of your SPL, contractual Shared Parental Pay is full pay. Any statutory Shared Parental Pay that may be due for that period is included within the amount of the full pay.

4.11.5 For the next eighteen weeks of SPL, contractual Shared Parental Pay is half pay, plus any statutory Shared Parental Pay that may be due for that period. However, the combined total will not exceed full pay. If required, the amount of contractual Shared Parental Pay will be reduced in order to achieve this limit.

4.12 EXAMPLES

Examples of how paragraphs 4.11.3 to 4.11.5 will apply in different circumstances are as follows:

In birth cases:

4.12.1 If either a) you and your partner both work at an NHS Scotland employer, or b) you are the mother and your partner does not work at an NHS Scotland employer, then in both cases after the first 2 weeks of compulsory maternity leave, there remains an entitlement to 6 weeks full pay followed by 18 weeks of half pay, which can either be used on further maternity leave or SPL. (it is important to note that if the mother and father both work with the NHS, the entitlement to 8 weeks at full pay should not be subject to the deduction of any weeks of full pay which the father takes as maternity support (paternity), as that would mean that the couple would be worse off by 2 weeks pay by taking SPL.) If either a) you and your partner, or b) you, opt into SPL, then the number of weeks of contractual Shared Parental Pay to which you are entitled is the same as the number of weeks of contractual maternity pay which is unused at the point in time when you start SPL. It is important to note that if you have taken leave prior to the birth, then it will only be the balance of the leave that is left that will be due and not necessarily the full amount as outlined above.

4.12.2 If you are the mother’s partner, and the mother does not work for an NHS Scotland employer, then your entitlement to contractual Shared Parental Pay is 8 weeks full pay and 18 weeks half pay. However, if you have taken maternity support (paternity) leave, then the 8 weeks full pay is reduced by the number of weeks of paid maternity support (paternity) leave which you have taken.
In adoption cases:

4.12.3 If either a) you and your partner both work at an NHS Scotland employer or b) you are the partner with primary caring responsibilities and your partner does not work at an NHS Scotland employer then in both cases after the first 2 weeks of adoption leave, there remains an entitlement to 6 weeks full pay followed by 18 weeks of half pay, which can either be used on further adoption leave by the partner with primary caring responsibilities, or on SPL. (It is important to note that if the mother and father both work with the NHS, the entitlement to 8 weeks at full pay should not be subject to the deduction of any weeks of full pay which the father takes as maternity support (paternity) as that would mean that the couple would be worse off by 2 weeks pay by taking SPL.) If either a) you and your partner or b) you, opt into SPL, then the number of weeks of contractual Shared Parental Pay to which you are entitled is the same as the number of weeks of adoption pay which is unused at the point in time when you start SPL. It is important to note that if you have taken leave prior to the birth, then it will only be the balance of the leave that is left that will be due and not necessarily the full amount as outlined above.

4.12.4 If your partner has the primary caring responsibilities and does not work for an NHS Scotland employer, then your entitlement to contractual Shared Parental Pay is to 8 weeks full pay and 18 weeks half pay. However, if you have taken maternity support (paternity) leave then the 8 weeks full pay is reduced by the number of weeks of paid maternity support (paternity) leave which you have taken.

4.12.5 Shared Parental Pay for the mother working in the NHS will be calculated on the same basis as her maternity pay. Shared Parental Pay for the partner will be calculated using the average weekly earnings rules used for calculating Statutory Maternity Pay entitlements, subject to the qualifications set out within section 15.23 of the NHS Terms and Conditions of Service Handbook.

4.13 BANK WORKERS & SESSIONAL WORKERS

In accordance with the Statutory Regulations, bank workers and sessional workers are entitled to Statutory Shared Parental Pay only. Payment will be made by NHS Lanarkshire dependent upon your earnings and length of service.
SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY

Workers do not have an entitlement to Shared Parental Leave in Touch (SPLIT) days.

4.14 OTHER TERMS DURING SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE

Your terms and conditions of employment remain in force during SPL, except for the terms relating to pay.

4.15 ANNUAL LEAVE AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

Annual leave and public holidays will continue to accrue during Shared Parental Leave, whether paid or unpaid, provided for by this agreement. Where the amount of accrued annual leave and public holidays would exceed normal carry over provisions, it may be mutually beneficial to both the employer and employee for the employee to take annual leave before and/or after the formal (paid and unpaid) maternity leave period. The amount of annual leave to be taken in this way, or carried over, should be discussed and agreed between the employee and employer.

4.16 SUPERANNUATION

If you are a member of the pension scheme, we will make employer pension contributions during any period of paid SPL, based on your normal salary, in accordance with the pension scheme rules. Your employee contributions will be based on the amount of any shared parental pay you are receiving.

4.17 SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE IN TOUCH (SPLIT) DAYS

We may make reasonable contact with you from time to time during your SPL although we will keep this to a minimum. This may include contacting you to discuss arrangements for your return to work.

You may ask or be asked to work on up to 20 Shared Parental Leave in Touch Days (SPLIT) during your SPL. This is in addition to any Keep in Touch (KIT) days that you may work during maternity or adoption leave. There is no obligation on NHS Lanarkshire to offer these days or for you to agree to them. SPLIT days can be used in situations where both parties feel it would be beneficial for you to attend a work-related activity, for example a training session or a team meeting, or to work part of a week to help you to return to your role in a gradual way.

During a period of Shared Parental Leave and Pay, payment for the Shared Parental Leave will be offset by the amount of pay for work done on any SPLIT days to ensure that you do not receive any more than your full pay for any period worked.
4.18 RETURNING TO WORK

If you want to end a period of SPL early, you must give us eight weeks’ prior notice of the return date. You should give this notice in writing to your line manager.

If you want to extend your SPL, assuming you still have unused SPL entitlement remaining, you must submit a new period of leave notice at least eight weeks before the date you were due to return to work, assuming you still have SPL entitlement remaining and have not already submitted three period of leave notices. If you are unable to request more SPL, you may be able to request annual leave or ordinary parental leave. The decision on whether to grant this request will be subject to service need.

You are normally entitled to return to work in the position you held before starting SPL, and on the same terms of employment. However, if it is not reasonably practicable for us to allow you to return into the same position, we may give you another suitable and appropriate job on terms and conditions that are not less favourable, but only in the following circumstances:

- if your SPL and any adoption, maternity or paternity leave you have taken adds up to more than 26 weeks in total (whether or not taken consecutively); or
- if you took SPL consecutively with more than four weeks of ordinary parental leave (under our Parental Leave Policy).

If you want to change your hours or other working arrangements on return from SPL, you should make a request under our Flexible Working Policy. It is helpful if such requests are made as early as possible.

4.19 FAILURE TO RETURN TO WORK WITH NHS LANSRKSHIRE

If you decide you do not want to return to work you should give notice of resignation in accordance with your contract.

Payment of contractual Shared Parental Pay is conditional upon you confirming in writing, before starting SPL that you intend to return to work for at least six months after the end of your SPL. If you later decide not to return to work for this minimum period, you must repay any contractual Shared Parental Pay (but not statutory Shared Parental Pay) which you have received.

If you return to work with another NHS employer, you must forward a copy of your appointment letter prior to your Shared Parental Leave/Pay ceasing.
SHARED PARENTAL LEAVE POLICY

All overpayments will be reclaimed in line with NHS Lanarkshire’s Overpayments Policy.

4.20 RESOLUTION OF DISAGREEMENTS

No request for leave under this policy will be unreasonably refused. Should a disagreement arise, the individual has the right to raise a formal grievance, it may be preferable in such circumstances, however for a manager to seek advice on resolving the matter from an appropriate member of the HR Team and a Trade Union/or Professional Organisation representative.

4.21 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For part-time staff, ‘full pay’ means the amount earned for the hours normally worked and ‘half pay’ means half that amount.

Shared Parental Leave, whether paid or unpaid, shall count as service for annual increments and for the purposes of any service qualification period for additional annual leave.

If you are in receipt of a leased car, there is a range of options available and you should contact the Car Leasing Section, NHS Lanarkshire Headquarters, Kirklands Hospital, Fallside Road, Bothwell, G71 8BB, Tel: (01698) 855686, or email cld@lanarkshire.scot.nhs.uk who will provide you with the relevant information.

If you change your address while on shared parental leave notify your manager and the Payroll Department immediately.

5. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 Employees must:

• Ensure they are familiar with the policy and procedures
• Comply with the policy, seeking clarification where required
• When considering applying for shared parental leave, do so timeously
